

CODE OF ETHICS

The code of ethics emphasizes values such as integrity, respect, community service, accountability, and sisterhood. Members are expected to uphold these principles in their conduct, fostering a supportive environment that promotes personal growth and positive relationships among sisters.

- Uphold and demonstrate the Gamma Delta Pi Spirit in thought, word and action through our chapters as well as individual members.
- Demonstrate ethical behavior and conduct ourselves in a manner consistent with the mission and values of Gamma Delta Pi.
- Respectfully adhere to the agreements and all policies established by Gamma Delta Pi.
- Avoid disparaging remarks about Gamma Delta Pi, any sorority or collegiate woman and refrain from discussing Gamma Delta Pi matters with non-members, in accordance with the dignity and good manners of sorority women
- Recognize friendly relations with all collegiate women, both sorority members and nonmembers, realizing the importance of creating and building friendships
- Plan meetings and events that provide opportunities for the greatest possibilities for our members while protecting the rights and privileges of individuals and the chapters
- Provide a safe, positive and enriching experience for our members and those who work our organization
- Strive to be truthful, honorable, open and friendly to all members
- Be respectful of the rights of every potential member to make her own choices, including the right not to be an active member of Gamma Delta Pi.
